WAR MEETING OF ALL THE GROCERS IN STATE CALLED

Compliance With Food Regulations and Cash Business to be Considered; Local Retailers Take Action to Cut Credits.

All the grocers in New Mexico are to be asked by the Retail Merchants' association of this city to meet here to lay plans for putting their business as far as possible on a cash basis, and to agree on general arrangements to comply strictly with the regulations of the national food administration.

"Whereas, Requests have come to this organization from Herbert Hoover, United States food administrator, Washington, D. C., and to Ralph Ely, state food administrator, Santa Fe, New Mexico."

The decision to call a state meeting was reached at a session of the Albuquerque Merchants' association last night, at which Marion Fox, secretary of the Wholesale Grocers' association of New Mexico, stated that the administration refused to allow the absorption of losses through bad credits greater than the average losses of three and five-year periods before the war. He said the margin of profit allowed was so small that the country must live on virtually a cash basis.

Harry Kelly of Las Vegas, Thomas Dougherty, Alfred Betz and Max Nordau of this city, and John Benner Jr. of Belen spoke at the meeting. Negro grocery leaders of the association and representatives of all the wholesale grocery houses in the city were present. The meeting followed a dinner at the Alvarado hotel. Arthur Everett presided.

Steps to put the retail business of this city on a cash basis as soon as possible are already under way. A committee appointed last night is working out plans. On it are Alfred Betz, Frank Wilson, Harry H. Ward, Russell Mead, Seymour Lewis, J. C. Held and T. G. Anderson. They will report at the next meeting of the association.

HUGHES TO DECIDE WHETHER CAMPBELL REMAINS ON TICKET

He is Official Charged With Having Ballots Printed; Candidate Makes It Plain That He Is Out of the Race.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 13, 1917.—Editor Evening Herald: Dear Sir: If space will permit, I beg you to please publish this letter.

To the voters of Albuquerque I wish to make known the fact that I have withdrawn from the race for city commissioners in the election to be held November 24th, even though my name might appear on the ticket. Remember when you go to the polls to cast your ballot that a vote in my behalf will be lost, as I am not a candidate.

I wish also to take this means to publicly thank those who have so uniformly supported me and to say further that none have appreciated more than I that support.

Hoping you will give the above the most careful consideration and not lose your vote, I beg to remain,

Respectfully yours,
Neal G. Campbell

Whether or not Neal Campbell's name will be left off the ticket at the commissionership election is to be decided by City Clerk Thomas Hughes. He is the official charged with having the ballots printed, and it was said at his office in the city hall this morning that the question would be put up to him. Mr. Hughes is warden of the state penitentiary and his headquarters is in Santa Fe.

White City Attorney William Kehler has advised the city government that there is no authority in the charter to leave off the ticket any candidate. Campbell has formally authorized the city clerk to leave his name off and emphasized his retirement from the race in a special appeal to the city council last night to have his name eliminated. The council declined to act in the absence of specific authority.

Campbell announced before the meeting of commissioners last week at which Waite Connell and Hammond were endorsed that he would withdraw his candidacy if he was not endorsed. He filed the following notice with Deputy Clerk Electrice Brown:

Deputy City Clerk, Albuquerque, N. M.—Dear Miss Brown: A meeting of the following classes on Friday evening November 17th announced my intention of withdrawing my name from the candidates for city commissioners and notice of the same appeared in the Journal of Saturday morning, the 18th, as this will be the time when my name from the ballot in this coming election as I am not sure to be a candidate.

Steps to put the retail business of this city on a cash basis as soon as possible are already under way. A committee appointed last night is working out plans. On it are Alfred Betz, Frank Wilson, Harry H. Ward, Russell Mead, Seymour Lewis, J. C. Held and T. G. Anderson. They will report at the next meeting of the association.
